

Good Faith

Neither party to the contract will do anything to prevent the other from obtaining the benefits of the contract. It's also to be honest in performing duties express or implied in the contract.